

National Partnership on Northern Territory Remote Aboriginal Investment Joint Steering Committee Communiqué

Meeting #3, Monday 12 December 2022

The Joint Steering Committee (JSC) of the Northern Territory Remote Aboriginal Investment (NTRAI) National Partnership Agreement met in Darwin on Monday 12 December 2022. This was the third meeting of the JSC.

The JSC discussed the scope and approach of future arrangements for remote services. JSC members noted the importance of the Priority Reforms as agreed by all jurisdictions and the Coalition of Peaks in the National Agreement on Closing the Gap in shaping the policy design.

The JSC also reviewed progress of current NTRAI activities using dashboard reporting, noting that no activities received an off-track or red traffic light rating, and look forward to a detailed briefing from relevant NT Government agencies in early 2023.

The JSC will next meeting in the first quarter of 2023.
