Local Investments Funding Grant Opportunity

Submission Reference: 7PCFTLP

Application Information

The Local Investments Funding grant enables strategic and rapid response to local issues. Activities should align with one or more of the Indigenous Advancement Strategy (IAS) programs and Closing the Gap targets.

The Local Investments Funding supports activities that align with community and government priorities by funding:

- Small scale, short-term, one-off proposals to address immediate local need and which have community support
- A variety of activities, ranging from small-scale infrastructure and cultural activities, through to a co-contribution to larger projects
- Activities that leverage other government funding and may include co-contributions for larger projects with other governments, local councils or organisations.

For information about how the Agency manages personal information in the administration of its grants, please see the Grants and Funding page of the NIAA website - <https://www.niaa.gov.au/indigenous-affairs/grants-and-funding>. General information about the Agency's privacy policies is also included below.

Provide a brief description of your project or the services to be delivered and how it will contribute to the objectives outlined in the Grant Opportunity Guidelines. *

In September 2022, Bathurst Regional Council confirmed permission from current 9th Earl Bathurst of Cirencester to access to the 3rd Earl Bathurst's private family archives as British Secretary for War and Colonies 1812-27.

Three additional sets of official records (3rd Earl Bathurst) are identified in England for research relevant to the military conflict that occurred in the Bathurst region between 1822-24 and culminated in the 1824 Proclamation of Martial Law as declared by Governor Brisbane.

Research of these archives will be co-led by Wiradjuri woman s47F and historian s47F with research support from s47F to produce a written report of primary source findings during a 2-3 month sabbatical in England (only s47F and s47F will travel).

Research findings will be analysed from the Wiradjuri perspective for new publishable knowledge to advance truth telling and a deeper understanding of the First Wiradjuri Wars of Resistance 1822

Assessment Criteria

Need and community involvement *

You should demonstrate this by identifying how the proposed activity:

- Is needed by the target community/ies or group/s you are proposing to service
- Will support improved outcomes in the target Indigenous community/ies or group
- Aligns with government priorities and any community or regional plan that may be in place, including regional priorities identified by community leadership groups (such as in Empowered Communities), where relevant
- Would contribute to the Closing the Gap target/s for this opportunity as outlined at section 2.1 - About the Indigenous Advancement Strategy of the Local Investments Funding grant opportunity

AND

That the target community/ies or group:

- Supports the proposed activity
- Has participated in the planning and design of the proposed activity, and
- Will be involved in delivery of the proposed activity.

There is growing interest and need for truth telling about the colonisation of Australia, which local Bathurst Traditional Owners are already delivering through various cultural immersion and education activities. This project seeks to extend Bathurst Traditional Owner's historical knowledge by accessing previously untapped primary source archives that inform new evidence-based truth-telling of the Bathurst War 1822-24 and related period. The critical opportunity presented is Bathurst Regional Council's confirmed access to the 3rd Earl Bathurst's archives coupled with Wiradjuri perspective of s47F research expertise.

Research and analysis of still untapped UK archives and records is aimed at enabling local Wiradjuri communities to access new information regarding key historic events, including physical conflicts and warfare, social and cultural interactions, military tactics on both sides of the frontier, various forms of Aboriginal resistance, and strategy during the early colonial invasion of Wiradjuri Country across central NSW.

While factual content of this nature is egregious, it can provide deeper insights and understandings of the context, impacts and consequences of British presence in Australia as the colonial frontier expanded west of Sydney in order to better understand past Wiradjuri society and culture in the face of British invasion and occupation.

s47F has a strong working relationship with current 9th Earl Bathurst, which has made this research project possible and s47F will travel (at his own cost) to meet with Lord Bathurst in MAY24 to support this archive project.

(Limit: approx 300 words, 2,000 characters)

1,639 characters of 2,000 used

Cultural competence *

You should demonstrate this by explaining your:

- Understanding of the service delivery area(s) and how your organisation is accepted by the target community/ies or groups.
- Capacity to deliver quality, culturally competent services for the target community/ies or groups.

AND commitment to:

- Provide Indigenous employment opportunities, and
- Use Indigenous organisations in your supply chain

Local Aboriginal groups in Bathurst have been consulted and are supportive, including:

- Traditional Owners
- Aboriginal Lands Council
- Young Mob

Facilitated by Bathurst Regional Council, both the Traditional Owners and Lands Council have met the 9th Earl Bathurst when he visited Bathurst in 2015, and both have engaged extensively with s47F in his research of Gudyarra, from which this project in-part emerged.

As expressed in letters of support, local Aboriginal groups in Bathurst see this research as important to learning more about the context and historical details of their own ancestral-family, societal and cultural history as British colonisation expanded and any new research findings will advance their existing education and awareness raising activities. All Wiradjuri groups across the Wiradjuri nation will be actively made aware of project outputs when they are publicly presentable.

Wiradjuri s47F as co-research supervisor ensures genuine Wiradjuri engagement with any new findings of historical fact and new lines of truth telling that will deepen Wiradjuri appreciation of Australia's documented history to date.

Various interested stakeholders have been made aware of this project including:

- AWM
- AITSIS
- MP Linda Burney & Senator Dodson
- Bathurst National Heritage Trust
- Bathurst RSL Sub-Branch
- NSW Minister Harris
- Newcastle & Sydney University

(Limit: approx 300 words, 2,000 characters)

1,413 characters of 2,000 used

Capability *

You should demonstrate this by describing how:

- Your resources and capability will support you to deliver high quality activities
- You have delivered this or a similar activity to a high standard
- The risks associated with the proposed activity, including work, health and safety risks, will be managed, and
- You will measure the performance of the proposed activity.

BRC has on staff sufficient expertise and dedicated resources to effectively manage a project of this nature, the Wiradjuri research and truth telling of the First Wiradjuri War of Resistance. BRC has a dedicated accounts department with qualified certified practicing accountants overseeing adherence to all financial management and reporting requirements. BRC will appoint key staff as project managers to oversee each of the program projects to ensure adherence to milestones and project objectives.

Project Manager software will be used to coordinate delivery of all project tasks. A range of administration software including Microsoft Office Suite will be used to facilitate internal and external community and project administration (budget, documentation and reporting). All financial transactions relating to the project will be managed by Council through its accounting system. Council will utilise its record keeping system TRIM to manage and record/track all documentation associated with the project.

BRC has extensive experience in administering public funds, successfully managing expenditure of $16.2m for grant project funds and $42m in capital works in 2017-2018 financial year.

(Limit: approx 300 words, 2,000 characters)

1,200 characters of 2,000 used

Delivering Outcomes *

You should demonstrate this by:

- Providing evidence that the proposed activity can deliver the intended outcomes for the community/ies or group/s, and how you will measure its effectiveness.
- Describing how outcomes of the proposed activity can be sustained into the future, including how you will maximise the contribution of First Nations people and communities and develop capacity in Indigenous organisations and businesses.
- Describing how the proposed activity will complement other activities or services within the target community/ies or group/s.
- Describing how your organisation learns from experience and feedback, and how you can adapt the activity to improve outcomes.

The delivery of the project will follow a clearly defined plan, with Project Management provided by experienced staff with expertise in necessary areas. Compliance with grant requirements and governments will be managed closely by the Project Manager, with reports prepared for Council and the Grant Authority as required.

A Project Management Plan specifically designed for this project will guide all project management efforts. Project management plan has been informed by Bathurst Regional Council's policies and plans as follows:

- Enterprise Risk Management Plan 2012
- Procurement Management Plan
- Community Strategic Plan (Bathurst 2040)

(Limit: approx 300 words, 2,000 characters)

651 characters of 2,000 used

re Letter of Support, UK Archive Project - BRC Application to NIAA – AUG23

AUGUST 15 2023

To Whom It May Concern:

With regard to BRC application to NIAA, known as: “Co-led Wiradyuri research of the 3rd Earl Bathurst’s archives in England to advance local Wiradyuri truth telling of the First Wiradyuri War of Resistance 1822-24 and 1824 Proclamation of Martial Law.”, our Corporation wishes to express its support on the following grounds.

This research will deliver a written report of findings pertaining to archives and collections housed in the United Kingdom that contain historical records relevant to the military conflict and social interactions that occurred on Wiradyuri Country in the Bathurst region between 1822 and 1824. These findings offer a unique opportunity to strengthen our efforts and capabilities of truth telling, to the direct benefit of the local Wiradyuri and Aboriginal community based in Bathurst, other Wiradyuri and Aboriginal communities beyond Bathurst, as well as the broader Australian community.

We note that our local group of Wiradyuri Elders includes direct descendants, such as Uncle s47F s47F, of the now infamous Wiradyuri Warrior Windradyne who was a central figure in the First Wiradyuri War of Resistance 1822-24, which gives this research an intensely personal relevance.

Research and analysis of known but still untapped UK archives and records will enable our local Wiradyuri community to enhance our outreach and education activities that we are already delivering based on existing historical knowledge, such as our Online and On Country Cultural Immersion Programs and our various other education programs. This project has strong potential to gain access to potentially new detailed information and knowledge of historic events and the era, including cultural and physical interactions including (but not limited to) conflict, resistance warfare and colonial and Wiradyuri strategies during the first invasion of Wiradyuri Country “... west of Mount York” as the original 1824 Proclamation states.

We look forward to this proposed archive research being conducted in England with the co-leadership of Wiradyuri Woman s47F , alongside s47F , and recognise there may be valuable insights available for publication during next year's bicentenary of the 1824 Proclamation of Martial Law should the project proceed in the proposed timeframe. Although, regardless of the timeframe of the 1824 bicentennial, this research project is considered critical to on-going truth telling for both the Wiradyuri Nation and Australia.

While truth-based insights of this nature are egregious, they simultaneously can provide deeper insights and understandings of the tangible impacts and consequences of British arrival and occupation in Australia as the colonial frontier expanded west of Sydney, and better inform the understanding and characteristics of Wiradyuri culture and society in the face of invasion and occupation.

We anticipate including any research resulting in this project and presenting it in a Culturally Safe manner into our course offerings, Cultural Immersions, education projects and community forums, incorporating it into our Wiradyuri based pedagogical framework for the work we already carry out in this space.

Knowing our history is the best way Australia can know itself and understand its own true identity, and we hope to utilise the findings of this research to the ultimate benefit of both Wiradyuri and all Australians.

Sincerely
The Directors

To Whom It May Concern,

Re: Funding Application UK Archive Research of Frontier Wars

This is to support Bathurst Regional Council in their funding application to NIAA for the above named submission.

Bathurst Regional Council maintains a strong working relationship with Bathurst Aboriginal Lands Council, as we support their application to NIAA for archive research in England, known as:

This research has the potential to gather new knowledge and truth telling regarding the 1824 Proclamation of Martial Law was enacted by then Governor Brisbane and which had devastating impacts on the Wiradjuri community. The opportunity to work with the current Earl Bathurst and access relevant archives is an excellent opportunity that should be fully explored and extensively researched for relevant information and insights.

If you require further information please contact our office on the above listed number.

Yours sincerely
