

CENTRAL
AUSTRALIA PLAN

Building Better Community Spaces

Across Central Australia, everyday places are being improved - making communities safer, more connected, and easier to live in.

Backed by a $91 million investment, this work is supporting real change across communities.

WHAT THIS LOOKS LIKE

Upgrades to ovals, lighting and recreation spaces for community use

New and improved community facilities like laundries, gardens and shared spaces

Safer spaces through fencing, lighting and community infrastructure

Spaces designed for families, young people and community gatherings

More and improved accommodation in Alice Springs for women and children

LOCAL IMPACT

Stronger, safer spaces where people can come together, connect and take part in community life.

WHY IT MATTERS

When community spaces are strong and safe, people feel connected, supported, and proud of where they live.

LOOKING AHEAD

More community spaces and improvements will continue across the region.

Get involved in your community.
