

CENTRAL
AUSTRALIA PLAN

Supporting Young People and Families

Young people and families are at the heart of strong communities. Across Central Australia, more support and safe spaces are being created to help people stay connected and supported.

Backed by a $50 million investment, this work is supporting real change across communities.

WHAT THIS LOOKS LIKE

Programs helping young people stay active, connected and supported

Support services for families, children and young people

School holiday programs and youth activities happening in community

Extra health assessments and therapy for young people in Alice Springs and communities

Opportunities for youth and family will continue to grow

Community-led programs including youth support bus to town camps and On-Country camps and walks

LOCAL IMPACT

Young people and families are more connected, supported, and active in community life.

WHY IT MATTERS

When young people and families are supported, communities grow stronger for the future.

LOOKING AHEAD

Opportunities for youth and family will continue to grow

Get involved in your community.
